

Form 2

Republic of Nauru
Department of Justice & Border Control

Application for Dependant Visa

About this form

Important – please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Before filling in the form, make sure you have all the required documents, and make sure you have read the information page carefully, particularly the section on visa conditions.

Making a valid application

To make a valid application you must:

- Use this application form (available from all Nauruan diplomatic missions, from the Department's website www.naurugov.nr/justice/visa.html or from the immigration and passport office in Nauru);
- Complete the form in English;
- Answer all questions truthfully;
- Provide all required supporting documents;
- Pay the required visa application fee;
- Lodge the application with the immigration office either through a representative in person or online at www.naurugov.nr/justice/immi/onlineapplication.html.

Any application that does not meet these requirements will not be a valid application and cannot be processed.

If you provide incorrect information or documents, this may affect whether you are granted a visa or not, or your visa may be subsequently cancelled.

Who the form covers

The application form only covers you as a dependant of the holder of a residence visa, business visa or employment visa. A dependent of the holder of a visa is a spouse of the holder (unless you are formally separated from the holder), a child under the age of 18 years of the holder or a person wholly dependent on the holder for financial, psychological or physical support.

Supporting Documents

The documents you must provide are listed in Part E of this application form. Attach all documents with your application.

'Certified copies' of documents means copies authorised or stamped as being true copies of originals by a Commissioner for Oaths or, if you are outside Nauru, a similar person or agency in your country. Do not provide originals unless you are asked.

All documents not in English must be accompanied by a certified English translation of the original.

Passport Information

Please note that your passport must not be due to expire within 3 months from the date of your application. If you change your passport after you have been granted a visa you must notify the Immigration Office in Nauru.

Options for receiving written communications

You may opt to have all communications about your visa application sent to you electronically via email, or in hard copy via the postal service. Electronic communication is recommended because of the delays that can occur with the postal service. If you are outside Nauru and do not have access to email but do not wish to incur the delays associated with the postal service, you may request that all communications in relation to your visa application be delivered in hard copy to the visa holder of whom you are a dependant.

Conditions of Dependant's Visa

You must immediately notify the Principal Immigration Officer if there is a relevant change in your circumstances, for example, the birth or adoption of a child, the death of a dependant or you getting married, divorced or formally separated. It is an offence not to do so.

Expiry of Visa

A Dependant's Visa granted to you will expire if

- It is granted to you as a spouse dependant and you get divorced or formally separated
- You cease to be a dependant
- You are granted a different class of visa
- The visa of the person of whom you are a dependant is cancelled or expires.
